Other Sources: Students are encouraged to contact the university's financial aid office regarding loans and other funding sources that may be available to graduate students: Office of Financial Aid, The Catholic University of America, Father O'Connell Hall, Suite 300M, Washington, DC 20064, tel: 202-319-5307 or 800-635-7788.

Confidentiality Statement: The information stated above is NOT used in the admissions process. The Graduate Admissions Committee uses the above information ONLY as a factor in determining scholarship and teaching/research assistantship eligibility. All personal and family financial information will be treated with strict confidentiality.

Deadline: This Graduate Financial Assistance Application must be submitted by January 15. Applications received after this date will be considered only after initial awards have been made. Aid may be very limited to students who do not meet this deadline.

Financial assistance is NOT automatically renewed from year to year. You must reapply each year by completing a new Graduate Financial Assistance Application by January 15. The financial aid awarded is for tuition and fees only and based on your individual circumstances and monies available for that year; your award may be higher or lower than previous years. If your status or course-load changes, you are required to contact the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs regarding the change. For further questions regarding financial assistance available from the School of Architecture and Planning, please contact the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs.

Requirement if selected for financial assistance: All awards of financial assistance must be accepted in writing by the student before funds will be distributed. Recipients of scholarship awards must write a thank-you letter to the donor and also be willing to meet with the donor if he/she visits the CUA campus.

---

I certify that the information I have submitted here is complete and true to the best of my knowledge and belief. I will notify the Associate Dean for Graduate Studies of any change in student status or credit load.
