

SUTURES

Healing Our Cities

The School of Architecture and Planning is excited to bring to Crough a lineup of skilled and nationally recognized architects to this year's Spring Lecture Series. 'Sutures: Healing Our Cities' will attempt to explore how to heal and maintain cities through the lense of urban planning.

MONDAY FEB. 10 | 5PM

More Than a Park: Equitable Development in the Nation's Capital

SCOTT KRATZ

Senior Vice President, 11th Street Bridge Park

ANNA MCCORVEY

*Senior Equitable Development Manager,
11th Street Bridge Park*

MONDAY FEB. 17 | 5PM

Civic Realism and Landscape

LAURIE OLIN

Partner, Olin Studio

MONDAY MAR. 3 | 5PM

Telling America's Story Through Design

TERRY SQUYRES

Senior Principal, GWWO

MONDAY MAR. 24 | 5PM

New Urbanism, Authenticity, and Democracy

ELIZABETH PLATER-ZYBERK

Founding Partner, DPZ CoDesign

JOHN TORTI

Founding Principal, Torti Gallas + Partners

MONDAY APR. 7 | 5PM

Honoring the Enslaved Builders of English Harbour, Antigua

DESLEY GARDNER

Heritage Resource Officer

All lectures are hosted in the Koubek Auditorium of the Edward M. Crough Center for Architectural Studies at The Catholic University of America (600 Michigan Ave NE, Washington, DC 20064). Lectures will be streamed online via YouTube & Zoom and be made available after each event. Please see architecture.catholic.edu for events, links to RSVP, and more information.

To request accommodations for individuals with disabilities, contact Jason Montgomery at 718.791.2787 or montgomeryja@cua.edu.

THE CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY OF AMERICA

School of Architecture and Planning